

JCD Manuscript Guidelines

Journal of Cultural Diversity: An Interdisciplinary Journal

EDITORIAL OBJECTIVES

The Journal of Cultural Diversity (JCD) is for educators, researchers, and practitioners involved in cultural diversity and the delivery of care, the development and implementation of programs, the formulation of policies, and the pursuit and analysis of research. JCD invites original articles on clinical practice, health issues, education, research, and social issues. All submissions must be accompanied by the following statement signed by the author(s):

The undersigned author(s) transfer all copyright ownership of the manuscript (title of manuscript) to Tucker Publications, Inc., in the event the work is published or included in any product that may derive from the published journal, whether print or electronic media. The undersigned author(s) warrant that the article is original, is not under consideration by another journal, and has not been previously published.

When submitting materials, please indicate whether the materials were prepared while the author(s) were employed by the U.S. government. Accepted manuscripts become the property of Tucker Publications, Inc. Although not required, query letters are welcomed.

MANUSCRIPT FORM

- Typed double space with one inch margins
 - Include a title page with:
Title of article
Author(s) full name(s), academic degrees, affiliation, title(s)
- Identify references on a separate page (try to limit to 25; use American Psychological Association (APA) style)
- Type each figure, chart, table on a separate page:
 - Reference each one in the text
 - Write a short legend for each one
